

Kyoto University Museum, Kyoto Univ. - UJSNH
co-organized International Symposium

Network of Natural History Museums as a Tool for Promoting Research, Collection building, Education and Outreach: Case Studies from Asian Regions

Lecture & Panel Discussion
Sept. 4, 2019 (13:15-)

Inamori Hall, Shirankaikan,
Yoshida Campus, Kyoto University

<http://www.shirankai.or.jp/e/facilities/access/index.html>

13:20-16:30 < Presentations >

Tatsuo Oji (Nagoya Univ., Japan)

Paleontology in Asian countries: toward a broader collaboration of paleontological science (13:20-13:45)

Nguyen Thien Tao (Vietnam National Museum of Nature)

Vertebrate zoological collection of the Vietnam National Museum System and Asian research network (13:45-14:10)

Mu Mu Aung (Ministry of Natural Resources and Environmental Conservation, Myanmar)

Floristic Inventory in Myanmar: special attention to the flora of Myanmar
(14:10-14:35)

Shuichiro Tagane (Kagoshima Univ., Japan)

Floristic inventory in Southeast Asia and the role of the herbarium
(14:45-15:10)

Weeyawat Jaitrong (Natural History Museum, Thailand)

Development of myrmecology in tropical Asia and network of ant researchers
(15:10-15:35)

15:35-16:30 < Panel discussion >

Including comments by

Tsuyoshi Hosoya (GBIF Japan) and Marta C. Lourenço (ICOM-UMAC Chair)

Poster Presentation

Sept. 4 (16:00 - 19:00) & Sept. 5 (9:30 - 16:00), 2019

Kyoto University Museum, Kyoto University

http://www.museum.kyoto-u.ac.jp/index_e.htm

Kyoto University Museum is located at a distance of 1 km from Shirankaikan, taking for 5 minutes on foot.

The symposium is co-organized by both Kyoto University Museum, Kyoto University and the Union of Japanese Societies for Natural History co-sponsorship of Tokyo Geographical Society supported by both Natural History Museum Network of Western Japan and the Museological Society of Japan